

Flight to Extinction

The Conflict Between American Progress and the Passenger Pigeon

Sponsored by Friends of Kinder Farm Park and the Anne Arundel Bird Club

Join young filmmaker and birder, Claire Wayner, for an evening of discussion on the Passenger Pigeon, an extinct species of bird that once numbered in the billions throughout North America. Claire will be showing her documentary on the pigeon accompanied by a brief lecture. Refreshments served. $5.00 admission, all ages. Free for members of Friends of Kinder Farm Park, and Maryland Ornithological Society

When: Monday, July 16, 2018 at 7 PM

Where: Kinder Farm Park Visitor Center

1001 Kinder Farm Park Rd., Millersville, MD 21108

Claire Wayner is a graduating high school senior from Baltimore, MD, and created her documentary – Flight to Extinction: The Conflict between American Progress and the Passenger Pigeon – as part of the National History Day competition. Her documentary is also set to be screened at the inaugural Johns Hopkins University High School Film Festival.

Please let us know how many are attending by contacting the Friends of Kinder Farm Park at speakers@kinderfarmpark.org, so we can plan for seating and refreshments.
